

dcr

Massachusetts

Quabbin Reservoir

485 Ware Road
Belchertown, MA
413-323-7221

Upcoming Programs at the Quabbin Visitor Center

Quabbin Reservoir will offer several free presentations this winter. All ages are welcome. Please call (413) 323-7221 for more information.

Sunday February 11, 2-3pm

EXPLORING THE SWIFT RIVER VALLEY HISTORICAL SOCIETY MUSEUM

Shelley Small, President of SWRVHS presents the story of this local resource.

Sunday, February 18, 2-3pm

CLEARING THE VALLEY- In 1927 the Swift River Valley was home to four towns and over 2000 people. Twelve years later the Quabbin Reservoir began to fill with water. How was the valley transformed? Join DCR Visitor Center Manager Maria Beiter-Tucker to learn more about this amazing story and about some of the individuals affected.

Sunday, February 25, 2-3pm

SECRETS OF THE QUABBIN WATERSHED -PRESENTATION AND BOOK SIGNING

Since his retirement, Dale Monette has photographed thousands of wildlife and scenic images in the Quabbin Reservation. In 2017 he published a book of a select collection of these images with the intent of opening up the hidden areas to the many people who cannot visit the reservoir and to document the wildlife for future generations. Join us for a presentation of his amazing photos.

Sunday, March 4, 2-3pm

"POSSUMS, BATS & GOLDENROD- OHMY!" - DCR Interpreter Nancy Huntington presents on the benefits of often overlooked flora and fauna.

Sunday, March 18, 2-3pm

FROM GREEN TO GRAY: SEVENTEEN YEARS OF HEMLOCK DECLINE ALONG A QUABBIN STREAM. presented by DCR Natural Resource Analyst Brian Keegan

Sunday, March 25, 2-3pm

THE LIFE OF AN AQUATIC BIOLOGIST – DCR Aquatic Biologist shares a snapshot of her day.